
Paint Failure Investigation

Our independent paint failure experts will provide a rapid response service worldwide to identify and document paint failure causes.

Safinah Group is a team of world-leading, independent paint failure consultants offering a wide range of services to help identify and solve paint problems in service.

Our reputation is built on our performance over decades, working with clients who are world leaders in their respective fields. We house all of our experts, scientists, and analysts under one roof, giving you instant access to all the services you need. We can provide independent, accurate and effective root cause analysis and offer impartial and effective advice.

Often, paint problems in service can lead to litigation. We offer clear, dispassionate advice and have a proven track record of excellence in the expert witness and mediation services we provide in this specialist area.

Upon confirmation of no conflict of interest Safinah Group undertakes work for clients on a first-come, first-served basis.
